

The West Midlands Self Advocacy Network
is looking for self-advocacy Link Workers to be based at their local self advocacy group

Salary - £2,340 (£9 per hour, 5 hours per week)
3/2/2020-5/1/2024

The West Midlands Self Advocacy Network
enables people who have a learning disability and/or autism to speak up for themselves

We provide the opportunity for people to be informed, understand and have their say about issues which are important to them

We meet every three months to talk about things that are affecting people's lives and how we can make real changes to improve them

We are looking for a link worker for each self advocacy group

Closing Date for Applications - Friday 10 January 2020

Interviews will be - Friday 24 January 2020

The Link Worker will :

Have a learning disability and/or autism

Be employed by their local self advocacy group.

Share the views of their community with the Network.

Work with their local self advocacy group.

Be supported by their local self advocacy group.

Come to the Network meetings.